PC:

In view of the fact that the applicant was on bail during pendency of trial and no complaint is filed for misuse of the bail so granted during that period before the Court, we see no reason why he should be detained during the pendency of the appeal. Hence applicant be released on bail in the sum of Rs.30,000/- with two sureties in the like amount. He shall furnish an undertaking to attend the concerned police station once in every three months.
